Description

Provide a short description of the event and its activities.

Együtt Európában! Together in Europe! The aim of the project was that the participant countries should think about those measures that should be taken in order to create a stable and secure future for their settlements considering the direction Europe heads on. During these days, citizens - local and invited also, had the chance to meet, make new friendships and share their opinion and concerns about the changing Europe, to speak about the new opportunities. The activities of our project was developed in such manner, that they comply at the same time with the Program's objectives, and with the direct and indirect participant's needs for information. In order to have more reliable transfer of information, the main working method was the presentation and the subsequent discussion and debate.

THE EVENT WAS HOLD AT 27 SEPTEMBER – 01 OCTOBER 2023, COMUNA JOSENI: WITH THE PARTICIPATION OF 230 INTERNATIONAL GUESTS, INDIRECT PARTICIPANTS WAS AROUND 10000.

The program was:

27.09.2023: Arrival and accommodation of guests.

28.09.2023: Round table discussion

Dinner together and getting to know each other. The participants get to know each other and discuss the programs of the following days. As an opening event, the Cultural and Historical Round Table facilitates the presentation of the reflections of the settlements on each other, the presentation of similarities, "brotherhood", the common cultural and historical heritage, as well as the future ideas and plans of the settlements.

29.09.2023: Meeting, Conference, Roundtable discussion, Discussion, Exchange of experiences, Visit

A common future in post-Brexit Europe! - presentations by partners. Signing a letter of intent for cooperation. Concrete economic steps, cooperation - representation of partners, discussion forum with the participation of the population and local/regional decision-makers. Joint cooperation, joint tenders. Presentation by Vicze Lorant, European parliament - Romania after Brexit. Visiting the surrounding of Joseni- tourism and economic development. Exploring the causes of Euroscepticism among young people by strengthening participatory democracy. Mapping tender opportunities. The involvement of as many age groups as possible would greatly facilitate the fulfillment of our basic objectives - building a common future based on the exchange of experiences, strengthening volunteerism and innovative solutions. The locations of the event series are barrier-free and accessible to everyone, helpers and volunteers will help you get to the locations.

30.09.2020: Lecture, Conference, Round table discussion, Exhibition stands, Crafts, Our local cultural values, Traditional dance hall

Volunteering - young people's participation in decision-making and community building. Investment opportunities, innovative energy sources. Utilization of tourist potential. European, local culture: performance by choirs, brass bands, folk dance groups. The settlements will appear with their own stand, they will be set up in the center of the village, thereby directly reaching the people - not only the participants of the meeting information about the project The participants think together about what joint cooperation and investment opportunities there are. Promotion of volunteering. Getting to know the similarities and differences between cultures and partners - with the help of activities, leaflets, folk costumes, food. Involvement of young people in European Union processes. The locations of the event series are barrier-free, so anyone can access them, thereby helping to make them accessible to everyone

01.10.2023: Evaluator, Summary of results

Evaluation of the meeting, summary of results. Further steps of cooperation - continued. An overview of joint responses to the question of solidarity, Euroscepticism and democracy building. Departure of guests.

This event is a big, international, but regional program too, so it will have positive influence to the citizens, activates them to the common activity, they consider the possibilities of cooperation with create a non-profit organizations, forming alliances, engaging in cross-border programs. Citizens of EU countries will accept european ideas and cooperation during the events, wich would have direct impact to the populatiry of EU, and faster accepting of EU policy.

Dissemination:

A Facebook page was created, where the most important information was included about the event, pictures, videos. We put a lot of emphasis on social media, as this channel is the best way to reach young people. With the help of pliants and press news the entire region wase informed about the events of the project, thereby better promoting the goals of the project.

During the event, reports will continuously appear on the event's social media page. After the end of the project, a small summary booklet with pictures of the program and events was prepared, which the partner countries will also receive from the village mayor's office. This booklet will also contain a brief description of the program. We will also send the finished booklet to the media. The activities was also be promoted with the help of the Facebook page, and at the same time, this provides a contact interface for partners and other interested parties even after the end of the project. The summary booklet prepared at the end of the project was sent to those who were unable to participate in the event, informing them of what was said and the conclusions drawn, and at the same time it was sent to the partner settlements so that they too can promote the CERV program. The cultural and gastronomic events organized in the framework of the project draw the attention of those who would otherwise not get involved to the project, so they could get to know the CERV program.

Within the event this most important concrete results was achieved:

- Mutual motivation - Presentation of the activities of each organization, which is closely related to specific topics,
 - Lecture involving the citizens of partner communities about active European citizenship, active civic participation in local democracy
 - Film screening and discussion about mutual motivation in terms of future cooperation,
 - Intellectual competition between teams of villages,
 - Workshop
 - Presentation of partner organizations,
 - Productions of amateur art groups, folk groups and soloists from invited delegations,
- The points listed in the program will bring tangible results in many ways:
- New relationship are formed between local governments, NGOs, entrepreneurs, and especially between citizens and families.
 - Sport and intellectual competition, cultural programs will encourage especially the young generation for develop relationship.
 - Recognize the possibilities in EU for benefit to the communities and regions on future.
 - Professional experience from interactive communication and workshop, using this experiences will help the professional development of each partners.

Evaluation and summarization of the experiences gained during the meeting, with the help of which the summary booklet and the DVD will be prepared. Discussing ways of long-term cooperation. Establishing multiple partnership relationships. Wide dissemination of the results and conclusions of the meeting in all settlements. As a result of the project, the partner towns can build a long-term and multifaceted partnership relationship. The cooperation contract signed by the participating settlements will state that everyone will try to apply the results of the project in their own settlement, promote it and report the consequences and lessons learned to the partners from time to time.
